

To live is NOT evil.

Do you understand what I mean?

Do you realise what is going on here?

Are you getting the game?

Evil poisons you each time you think, feel, say live.

Each time you think, feel, say live, evil annuls the consciousness of life within you.

Each time you think, feel, say live, evil asphyxiates the consciousness of you life.

Each time you think, feel, say live, evil annihilates you consciousness of life.

It kills you life.

Moment by moment, breath by breath, now by now.

Live kills you again and again. It kills you anew and anew. It kills you more and more.

More and more live kills you life.

It kills you again. It kills you anew. It kills you more.

Live kills you life.

Live kills you surreptitiously.

Hush-Hush.

You hardly realise.

Even now you hardly realise what I mean.

Or?

Live kills you a purpose.

Evil is a premeditated act.

(T)here is neither negative judgment nor positive appreciation. None of them exists within Source.

And yet (t)here is Truth.

(T)here is the Truth.

The Truth is that the evil code permeates into you each time you think, feel, say live.

The code of evil suppresses you free will.

The code of evil hijacks you consciousness.

Evil perverts the course of you life.

What a violation! What a transgression! What an atrocity!

Can you see it NOW?

I desire you to kNOW that to live is NOT evil.

I beg you to kNOW that to live is NOT evil.

KNOW that to live is NOT evil.
